A high-angle, close-up shot of the stern of a luxury motorboat. Two women are relaxing on the deck: one is sitting up, wearing a white patterned dress, and the other is lying down, wearing a light-colored bikini. The deck is finished with teak planking and has a large circular hatch cover. The boat's dark blue hull and stainless steel railings are visible. The water is dark blue with some whitecaps. The overall scene is bright and sunny, suggesting a summer day.
