The image shows the interior of a boat's cockpit. In the center is a black steering wheel mounted on a pedestal. To the left of the wheel is a dashboard with a large digital display screen. Below the screen is a black stereo unit with a digital display. To the right of the wheel is a throttle lever and a gear shifter. The seats are upholstered in a light tan or beige material with blue accents. The floor is covered with a tan and brown patterned mat. The background shows a view through the windshield of a wooded area under a blue sky with light clouds.
